

ELINOR WONDERS WHY CHARACTER BREAKDOWN
Character Count	Character Name	Animal Type	Relationship	Charateristics
1	Elinor	Rabbit	Main Character	Precocious little bunny rabbit with seemingly boundless energy to explore and learn interesting things <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Silly and is not afraid to voice her opinion.- Has a super power: the power of observation.- Catchphrases: “That is SO interesting!” “We need MORE observation”- She likes to charge ahead and is very excited to try things out.- She is a very positive character; but we tend to only see one note from her?- Elinor could be very focused- She is unwilling to move on from things when she doesn’t have the answer- She could ask too many questions- Would be good to have her be the one having the problem, or the emotional stakes.- We could leave her alone sometimes- See how she reacts to things on her own, Or push her in new directions- Sometimes she comes off as very naïve and other times more precocious very knowledgeable and mature. We like when she acts like a regular kid, which is relatable to the kids at home. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Also she can make jokes and be FUNNY!

2	Olive	Elephant	Elinor's Best Friend	Olive is also one of Elinor’s best friends. She has a warm and generous personality, and is very perceptive about others. She loves books and is the best reader in the group. She also has an excellent memory, so she often has a useful tidbit of information to share with the group. Olive loves mysteries (she will often say “Sounds like a mystery!”). She loves being the note-taker in the group. She likes to organize their thoughts and think carefully, often laying the groundwork for Elinor or Ari to make an interesting connection. Olive trunk is very flexible and useful. Since her hands don’t have very dexterous fingers, she uses her trunk to make gestures, and to hold or manipulate things like a crayon or a fork. Olive is a bit of a picky eater. She writes observations about the food she eats in a little notebook. <ul style="list-style-type: none">- She loves books and is the best reader in the group. She also has an excellent memory.- She loves bananas- Need to think about her catchphrase “I like that word” “I read that in a book” “Dun dun dunnn...sounds like a mystery”- Olive can read books, her bookishness makes her cool,- Several examples of this throughout the series- Olive is physically more adept than the others – can ride a bike and roller-skate- Olive can have funny lines too!! Her science theories can be hilarious and kid-like- She can be very naïve when she’s really into something, like most kids- She has a soft spot for the environment and nature.
3	Ari	Bat	Elinor's Best Friend	Fun sense of humor and a dramatic personality.
